SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 10.—While carpenters were at work repairing the timber in the Luke Fidler shaft Monday a miner's lamp on the head of Irvin Buffinton ignited the wood and a fierce fire ensued. The carpenters gave an alarm and seventy miners commenced a race for life, as the mine was filling with smoke. Through a shaft now in course of construction they were hoisted to the surface in an iron bucket, a great crowd cheering as the men reached the mouth of the pit.

During the rescue the flames came up the air course and burned the fan-house and the fire department was called into service. Superintendent Morris Williams and Mine Inspector Edward Brewster heroically entered the burning mine to seek for lost or exhausted men. At 5 o'clock in the morning Irvin Buffinton was found dead. It is known for a certainty that George Brown, a well known politician; John Gierze, a laborer; Anthony Robert, a driver boy, and Michael Buzofskie, a laborer, are still in the mine. Heroic efforts are being made to reach them, without, however, much hope of success.

The gangs of workmen can not get to any point near the fire on account of the smoke and gas, so that the flames can not be fought with any success. This mine connects with the Hickory Swamp colliery of the Union Coal company and it has to be drowned out, which will compel both mines to shut down for a year or more.

The Luke Fidler colliery is operated by the Mineral Railroad & Mining company, and gives employment to 900 men and boys.

GLAD THE PASTORS PAID US A VISIT

JANESVILLE FOLKS WELCOME
THE CONVENTIONS.

It Looks As If Every House In Town
Were Open—How the Baptist
Pastors and Their Wives Were Apportioned—Many Presbyterians
Still to Come.

If any fried chicken is left in Janesville Saturday night then ministers are not the men they used to be.

Put three hundred pastors and their wives in town for a week and think of the result!

Janesville realized all this.

Her people knew how the mashed potato reserve would be drawn upon.

They knew how jelly closets would suffer. They didn't question that fruit cake would melt away on tea tables like an adventurous April snowflake.

They knew all these things, and, truth to tell, they felt rather glad. If Janesville women have one especial pride it is their ability to comfort the inner man. The two conventions have given them a chance to prove their skill. Not only have Baptists and Presbyterians opened their houses. The books of the two assignment committees make it look as if every front door in the city swung free. The Presbyterian visitors are not all assigned and will not be until tomorrow when large arrivals are expected. The Baptists began coming two days earlier and most of them are comfortably installed. GERMANS CELEBRATED LAST NIGHT.

Pleasing Program and Dance Given at Concordia Hall.

The Germans of Janesville marked the settlement of America by their forefathers with a very enjoyable entertainment at Concordia hall last night. A goodly audience was present and the exercises were of a very pleasing nature. The program opened with remarks by President Carl Brockhaus which was followed by vocal music by the society. Conrad Krez of Milwaukee, was then introduced and made a very taking speech that held the undivided interest of his hearers. Miss Ingrid Pfennig then gave a piano solo that was rendered in a very finished manner. Mrs. F. H. Kemp's vocal solo came next and she sang with a sweetness that captivated her audience. A pleasing number was Alfred Kneff's cornet solo with piano accompaniment by his sister, Miss Mamie Kneff, in which both musicians did exceptionally well. Charles E. Hemmans' recitation, "A German Heart," was very well given. Another finished cornet solo by Mr. Kneff preceded the piano solo by Miss Marie Muellenschlager, which won for her much praise. Two songs by the society, "The German Song" and "Wacht am Rhein" closed the literary program and dancing to the strains of Smith's orchestra followed.

SUGAR SLOW TO FALL

IN LOCAL STORES

JANESVILLE DEALERS BOUGHT HEAVILY AT $5.21.

They Will Drop Reluctantly and Will Try to Clean Out the Old Simply Before the Cut In Prices Begins—Political Manipulation Is Charged.

Janesville people will not reap the full benefit of the break in sugar, unless the break continues long enough to give the local dealers time to unload sugars purchased under the old sugar trust schedule or card, which was $5.21 per hundred delivered, with a rebate of 17.62 cents, the freight from Chicago to Janesville.

Most of the Janesville grocers were very unfortunate when the break came, in that many had just got in a large stock, some having three and four tons on hand, which cost $5.21, less the rebate.

"I wish the break had held off a month," said one Main street dealer, "we just received two tons on Saturday, and we will lose money on it, because we will be compelled to drop in price with other dealers in order to hold our customers."

A careful canvass on Milwaukee and Main streets showed that in few stores has the break affected the retail price of sugar. Sixteen pounds for a dollar was the ruling price. Now a few stores are selling eighteen pounds for a dollar, and unless prices turn upward in New York, twenty pounds may be the size of the dollar retail packages. The dealers who have large quantities of $5.21 sugar are reluctant to increase the weight of their dollar packages, but they are confronted with a loss of custom and will fall into line.

The sugar trust controls the price of sugar throughout the United States, the sugars being sold in New York by card, with the freight to any point added as the price. Janesville dealers buy the great bulk of their sugar in Chicago. The Chicago dealers always make charges for cartage, packing, etc., but have given a rebate of freight to the local dealer from Chicago, thus selling to Janesville dealers at the card rate. For example, the New York card rate on Monday was $4.41. The freight rate to Chicago made it $4.62. The freight to Janesville is 17.62 cents, making the rate laid down here $5.0862. This is the price Janesville dealers are compelled to pay at the present time, with a rebate of the 17.62 cents local freight.

There are numerous hints that the cut will last until November 4, and no longer. It is said to be the result of Sugar Trust manipulation to aid democratic congressional candidates in the three weeks before election.

He Deserved His Fate.

"Died," wrote the editor of the Spiketown Blizzard, as a sudden inspiration came over him, "in our sanctum, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 3 p. m. last Thursday, of sticky fly paper, 1,227 flies. Their death has caused a glue 'em over the whole community."

The next day thirteen of the most reputable citizens of Spiketown went to the Blizzard office and had their papers stopped.

Coal Is What We Have to Sell.

If you have anything to sell let the people know it. We have coal, all sizes. Nut, No. 4, Range and Egg, $6.50 per ton. Pocahontas, smokeless, beats them all. Our Bird's Eye Cannel for grates is the best of all. Our Vanderpool, smokeless, for cook stoves, just try it. Our Hocking Valley, very cheap, $4.50 per ton. We sell four tons of good soft coal for $8.00. No fitly need go cold.

JANESVILLE COAL CO.,

J. H. GATELEY, Manager.

The Question Told the Story.

He sat in his store door at noonday: he was lonely, glum and sad; the flies were buzzing about him, led by a blue-winged gad. Not a customer darkened his parlors, not a sign of business was there, but the flies kept on their buzzing about the old man's hair. At last in misery he shouted: "Great Scott! I'm covered with flies!" and the zephyrs that toyed with his whiskers asked: "Why don't you advertise?"

He will not be urged to purchase if he is not satisfied as to the quality and prices.

Potatoes Cheaper.

Before you engage your winter supply of potatoes, we think it would be advisable for you to see us as we have 1,000 bushels of as fine potatoes here today, as ever were seen in Janesville. We bought them cheap, and will make especially low figures on ten to fifty bushel lots.

Don't Offer a Reward

For your lost appetite. All know that it is a valuable piece of personal property, but why go to the expense when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will restore it to you. A course of that unparalied tonic and corrective not only induces a return of the relish for food, but confers upon the stomach the power to gratify appetite without unpleasant sensations afterward. For the purpose of quickening digestion, arousing a dormant liver or kidneys, and establishing regularity of the bowels, no medicine can exceed this genial family cordial in which the pure alcoholic principle is modified by blending with it botanic elements of the highest efficacy. Avoid the fiery unalloyed stimulants of commerce as a means of overcoming inactivity of any of the organs above mentioned, and use, instead, the Bitters. This professionally sanctioned medicine remedies malarial and rheumatic ailments.

It is a very nice place to have fun. A feller and I went out in a boat and the boat tipped over and a man got me out, and I was so full of water that I didn't know nothin' for a long while. The other boy has to be buried after they find him. His mother came from Lincoln and she cries all the time. A boss kicked me over and I have got to have some money to pay the doctor for fixing my head. We are going to set an old barn on fire tonight, and I should smile if we don't have bully fun. I lost my watch and am very sorry. I shall bring home some mud turt'le, and I shall bring home a tame woodchuck if I can get them in my trunk.'"

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1680—John, duke of Argyll, statesman and commander, born.
1731—Henry Cavendish, famous for discoveries in chemistry, was born at Nibley, Italy; died 1810.
1738—Benjamin West, celebrated American painter, born in Chester county, Pa.; died in London, 1820.
1759—Rev. Theobald Mathew, Irish apostle of temperance, was born at Thomastown, Tipperary; died 1856.
1806—Jeremiah James Oberlin, noted scholar and archaeological writer, died at Strasburg, born there 1755.
1828—Samuel Jackson Randall, American statesman, born in Philadelphia; died 1900.
1837—General Cavaignac, military dictator during the French revolution of 1848, died near Paris; born 1803.
1872—Sarah Payson Willis (Eldridge Parton), better known as Fanny Fern, died in Brooklyn; born 1811. William Henry Seward, statesman, died at Auburn, N. Y.; born 1801.
1885—Cardinal McCloskey, eminent American prelate, died in New York; born 1810.
1888—Excursion trains collided at Mud Run, Pa., killing 63 passengers. An amphitheater fell at Quincy, Ill.; 500 spectators injured.

HE ISN'T A COWARD.

Nobody doubted Mr. Hill's sincerity when he said he had, ever since the convention, been desirous of finding another man to take his place at the head of the ticket who would be acceptable to the party. Failing in this, he felt constrained to accept the candidacy. To decline at so late a day would hurt him more than to accept and be defeated. It would be a confession of cowardice; it would be a base desertion of an army by its commander in the face of the enemy. Hill has been charged with a good many moral infirmities and obliquities, but nobody has ever yet accused him of cowardice or of treachery to his friends.

THE "RECORD" HAUNTS THEM.

If the democrats were wise they would call in the "Congressional Record" for the last session and commit it to the flames. Congressman Outwaite, of Ohio, for instance, is asked to explain how he happened to say in debate of the proposed tariff bill that it had been framed "by a majority of the gentlemen of the south," to give the poor and shivering wretches of the north, with its long winters, free wool and cheaper garments with which to clothe themselves." Mr. Outwaite will be apt to do some shivering himself when he reads the verdict of his wretched constituents.

TWENTY BALLOTS FOR NEW VOTERS

The voter in New York City will handle about twenty separate ballots on election day. Voters fresh from the naturalization mills will vote on a new constitution divided into three parts, on the consolidation of New York and Brooklyn, on lending the credit of the city to an underground railway company, and on a dozen and a half other issues. The new citizen will be deeply impressed, if not completely rattled, with the greatness of his adopted country.

There is not the faintest chance now for the country to recover before December 31 the gold which it has lost since January 1. We are "out" $66,000,000 in the gold movement thus far, as compared with $13,000,000 at this time in 1893.

The farmers can hardly be expected to shoot for the democratic party, when they are told how cheaply they can buy woolen clothing under the new tariff law with the proceeds of wheat for which they can only get 45 cents a bushel.

Senator Vilas says that the financial depression began when the Sherman law was passed in 1890; but, strangely enough, the country did not find out anything about it until 1893, after the democratic party took control of things.

There are signs that the reduction of the price of wheat is likely soon to be duplicated in the beef and pork market.

IN A PLAYFUL MOOD.

Young Boodler—Is it safe to approach the boss with an offer of money? Old Boodler—Not if you value money.

Porter—Do you want your baggage checked? Uncle Oatbin—No, sir; I want it to go right on as far as we do, young man.

Tommy—Paw, is the devil swearing? Mr. Fig—I see no reason why he should be; things seem to be coming pretty much his way.

Client—I want to sue the railroad company for $50,000 damages. What is the first thing for me to do? Attorney—Give me a retainer of $500.

Baron—I believe that in this country you have to get along without pedigrees. American Girl—Not at all. We use pedigrees for our horses.

Alice—I've been engaged six times. Maude—And I've been engaged twelve. Alice, with emphasis—Yes, but I was engaged to a different man each time.

"What! haven't you named the baby yet?" Mamma—No. "Can't find anything good enough?" Mamma—No; can't find out which uncle is the richest.

"I was not aware that you knew him," said Tom Snack to an Irish friend the other day. "Knew him?" he exclaimed. "I knew him when his father was a boy!"

Mrs. Wigwag—Look at that slovenly girl with only one earring. Wigwag—Yes! her earrings remind me of my advice to you. Mrs. Wigwag—How so? Wigwag—In one ear and out the other.

Professor, lecturing on the gorilla—Gentlemen, you must give me your undivided attention. It is impossible for you to form a true idea of this hideous animal unless you keep your eyes fixed on me.

Voice from Doorway—What are you doing out there? Mary—I'm looking at the moon. Voice from the Doorway—Well, tell the moon to go home, and you come into the house. It's half past eleven.

Miss Wheeler—Lend you a quarter? Why, certainly. Fan de Bicycle—Thanks, awfully. It was dreadfully stupid of me, but I came away this morning and left all my small change in my other bloomers.

Mrs. Dimpleton—I would like hotel life, but I am so lonesome all day while my husband is at the office. Mrs. Cheltenham—Why don't you keep house? Then you can spend your spare time in thinking what you will have for breakfast.

Russian Troops Watching Things.

TIENTSIN, Oct. 10.—Five thousand Russian troops are poised on the Korean frontier facing the Japanese force at Hun Chun, nine miles north of the boundary. Assaults on foreigners at Peking and its environs, which have constantly occurred during the last ten days, are increasing in frequency and gravity. Peking is in a panic over the approach of the Japanese.

MOODY IS GREETED BY 1,200 PEOPLE

HE ADDRESSES AN IMMENSE MORNING MEETING.

He Says, "I Want to Help You," and Goes Straight to the Point, Wasting No Time On Ornament Or Fine Phrasing—Dr. Hodge Honored.

So great an audience that it darkened the church windows heard Dwight L. Moody today.

The 1,200 people arose for the first hymn.

It was as if curtains had fallen over every window.

In that subdued light the great evangelist was seen to be a solid, business-like man, white of hair and with closely-cropped white whiskers. Before he was introduced there was a solo by F. H. Jacobs, hissing. The evangelist stepped forward with no introduction and gave the keynote of his address in one sentence:

"Now if I can have your undivided attention perhaps I can help you."

During the entire hour there was no oratory—no studied eloquence—no attempt at formal discourse. The endeavor was to "help," not to entertain.

Personality of the Holy Ghost.

Mr. Moody's subject was "The Holy Spirit." He had been in the church twelve years, he said, before he ever heard of the personality of the Holy Ghost.

An aged worker in Chicago brought him to realize that it was dishonoring the Holy Ghost to consider it simply an attribute of God, and now he wanted to speak to his Janesville audience on the work that the Holy Ghost had to do. The first work of the Holy Ghost was to bring conviction of sin.

Without the Holy Ghost in an audience the Angel Gabriel couldn't produce conviction. And when this conviction has come, then the Holy Ghost shows itself in another way and fills that audience with love.

Besides bringing love it brings hope. No man without hope—no pessimist—has the right to enter a pulpit.

Too Much Criticism Today.

The next thing the Holy Ghost gives is liberty.

"And I think liberty is the thing we have the least of in a good many churches and Sunday schools and Endeavor societies," said Mr. Moody. "You see ministers who are allowed to talk single tax and peoples party and ethics and all that, but when it comes to religion their hands are tied."

No minister could work without a proper atmosphere, Mr. Moody said, and without the Holy Ghost this atmosphere could not be. There was too much criticism in the modern congregation. What could Peter have done on the day of Pentecost if James had turned to Thomas and said:

"I don't think Peter is as logical to-day as he usually is. Here he has the most influential audience that ever assembled in Jerusalem and yet he is giving them just an ordinary talk. And I wish he wouldn't bear down on the Jews quite so strong. Why can't he give the message a little more mildly?"

Factories Rented Without Power.

Mr. Moody said another thing that ailed congregations was that there were too many people in them without efficiency. They were Christians but they "didn't accomplish anything. They reminded people of the factories that are for rent 'with or without power.' Such people should be told that they were no good to the church unless they got connection with the power. God had promised that all should get power after receiving the Holy Ghost. Some had said that it wasn't scriptural to pray for the Holy Ghost to descend upon people in this day. Mr. Moody didn't believe that."

"It fell twice in Jerusalem," he said, and once in Caesarea ten years later. Why shouldn't it fall in Janesville today? Seek it! If your church won't join you let its minister go lack with torch newly-lighted and strive until he has kindled the holy flame in every heart."

Well Known Men on the Platform.

"Come Holy Spirit" was sung by Mr. Richards while the audience bowed in prayer. A word of invocation and the great meeting ended.

The pastors who occupied places on the platform were Dr. H. H. Jessup, of Syria; Moderator W. L. Greene, of the Presbyterian synod; President Lind. J. W. Cochrane, of Madison; Rev. Dr. Hodge, Rev. S. P. Wilder and Rev. E. H. Pence, of this city. It was through Mr. Cochrane that Mr. Moody was secured. After much persuasion the great evangelist agreed to come to Janesville on the 9:30 train if he could return at 11. The invitation for a joint meeting was sent to the Baptist convention at once, and to-day's outpouring resulted. Mr. Moody finished barely in time to catch his train. He was hurried into David Jeffris' carriage as soon as he finished his remarks, and got to the depot just as the train pulled out.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD AT WORK.

Why Are Church Members Cold—Reports From Mission Fields.

The real business of the Presbyterian Synod of Wisconsin opened this morning with devotional exercises led by Joseph Brown. After some routine business had been disposed of the synod adjourned to the Congregational church to hear Evangelist Moody. At 11:30 the synod again met and listened to the necrology report of Rev. E. D. Ware. Thereport of the treasurer was referred to the finance committee. The presbyterial meetings and reports of the historical records and foreign missions and freedmen committees were taken up at 2:30 p. m. Addresses by Rev. C. L. Richards, of Madison, and Henry H. Jessup, of the Syrian Mission, followed. Tonight there will be reports on home missions by Rev. Samuel Brown, Mrs. D. B. James and Rev. Wilson Phraner.

The Woman's Synodical Missionary society has been in session all day, one of the most suggestive papers being on the theme "Do Missionary Efforts Civilize Nations?" The work in the different presbyteries of the state was reviewed and there was a discussion on the question: "How Far Are the Officers of Our Societies Responsible for Lack of Interest Among Two-Thirds of Our Church Members?"

The ladies brought here by the Synod Missionary convention have done good work. Several of national prominence have been among the speakers. Mrs. D. R. James is the wife of a congressman and the president of a home missionary organization which is doing remarkable work among the so-called exceptional populations of the country—the Alaskans, Mexicans, mountain whites, freedmen, and Indians and Mormons also. Mrs. Sarah J. Rhea was a well-known missionary in Persia, and for some years has been in this country making many addresses and winning much admiration for her power in her peculiar field.

BAPTIST HONOR DR. M. G. HODGE

Enthusiastic Tribute to the Venerable Bower City Minister.

Dr. M. G. Hodge's work in Janesville was recognized by Wisconsin Baptists in a way that brought tears to the venerable pastor's eyes. Rev. S. P. Wilder was invited to take part in the discussion of "Long and Short Pastorates" and referred most warmly to the high regard entertained for Dr. Hodge by Janesville people, outside as well as within the Baptist church. The applause that greeted this tribute showed more strongly than words that the affection was not confined to Bower City folks. The Baptist convention was occupied during a large part of the morning with the election of officers. The men chosen were:

President—E. J. Lindsey, Milwaukee.

First Vice President—M. E. Chandler, West Superior.

Second Vice President—W. A. Barker, Warren.

Treasurer—F. C. Dinsmore, Delavan.

Corresponding Secretary—Rev. D. E. Halteman, Delavan.

Recording Secretary—Rev. O. P. Bestor, Evansville.

Auditors—D. Dickson, Joseph Moody, Milwaukee.

Preacher of Annual Sermon—Rev. P. S. Everett, Waukesha.

Alternate—Rev. Loren A. Clevenger, Oshkosh.

Members of Baptist Ministers Home at Fenton, Mich.—Rev. E. W. White, Milwaukee.

Rev. C. A. Hobbs reported on his visit to the divinity school at the Chicago university commending the work done and the soundness of the instruction.

After the Moody meeting the state missionary conference was begun. Reports from Milwaukee, Bay View, West Superior, Wausau, Tomahawk, Neenah, Menasha and Antigo were heard.

Rev. C. A. Hobbs, D. D., reviewed "Fifty Years of Missionary Work in Wisconsin" during the afternoon session. Dr. M. G. Hodge dealt with another phase of church history in "The Ministers of the Half Century." The labors of the Woman's Missionary society were summarized in brief addresses and the chapel car services were described by Rev. E. B. Edmunds. The services tonight and tomorrow will be:

Evening—Reception of New Ministers. Report of Committee on Home Missions. Address—Our State Work With Its Face Toward God. Dr. Fred Evans. Address—National Work, Dr. T. J. Morgan.

Thursday Morning Report of Committees on Resolutions and Christian Education. Address, Professor H. M. Burchard. Woman's Foreign Mission Society. Report of Committee on Foreign Missions.

WISCONSIN BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION. Thursday Afternoon—Address of Welcome, David Tennent. Response, Joseph Moo y. Address—Consecration, by Rev. J. R. Baldwin. Consecration Meeting. The Three C's—Bible Readers' Course, Miss Belle Tennent. Sacred Literature Course, Mrs. Pearl Miller. The Missionary Conquest Course, by Rev. E. R. Clevenger. Experience Meeting on the Three C's. Prayer Meeting, Miss Elsie Palmer. The Relation of Young People's Societies to Denominational Benevolence. Address, Rev. E. D. Dreser.

Evening—Report of the Committee on Young People's Societies and Their Work, by Joseph Moody. Address—The Relation of the Young People's Movement to the Future. Development and Progress of Our Baptist Churches, Rev. A. Kempton. Address, Dr. W. M. Lawrence.

THREE BITS OF MOODYISM

The trouble with most sermons is that the hearers think "they just fit somebody else."

Let a pessimist enter a pulpit and within a month, the congregation will hang their heads like bullrushes.

The Ark of God is ticketed right through and is not going to be switched off.

Williams-Tonkin.

At the Williams home, 154 Glen street last night, Miss Anna Tonkin, of Mineral Point, was united in marriage to Orville Williams. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. P. Wilder at 8 o'clock, only a few relatives being present.

MAYOR IS IN THE CITY ON A DOG-BITE CASE

GRAMPKE'S DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST J. C. BUNTIN.

The Nashville Horseman Has Run Through $40,000 In a Year, and Is Now Said to Be Dead Broke—Friends Try to Settle the Case.

MAYOR GEORGE B. GILL of Nashville, is in town looking into the Grampke-Buntin damage suit. At the close of the June meeting at the Janesville driving park in 1893, a son of Albert Grampke was at the park with other boys and John C. Buntin is charged with setting a dog on him. Young Grampke was badly bitten. Buntin was sued for damages, and his horses were attached. He gave bonds in the sum of $5,000, and his horses were released. The suit is now pending in the Walworth county circuit. Mr. Gill is here, it is understood, to take steps for a settlement.

Buntin is a young Nashville man of wealthy family. He is a great fancier of fast horses, and has lost about $40,000 since he was here a year ago. In '93 he was considered "well heeled," but it is claimed that he is now "broke."

We have a large cloak department, but yesterday its capacity was tested. Although many garments were sold, there were some women who could not be suited; to all such we will say: "come tomorrow." The representative of a large New York cloak house, showing one of the noblest lines on the road, will be at our store tomorrow Thursday, October 11. It means another large assortment to select from, many exclusive styles. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

The second of the select parties given by the Henrietta club will be given next Tuesday evening, October 10, at the Armory. Only those holding invitations to the series of '94 and '95 are invited, and will be admitted.

This is surely cloak week at J. M. Bostwick & Sons'. Another agent expected Thursday, October 11, with an entirely different line of garments than that shown at their Tuesday's sale.

The case of the state against Ellen Shafer of Orfordville, charged with illicit liquor dealing, was called in the municipal court this morning and continued for one week.

This factory since it was founded has been to its patrons something like an insurance company, protecting them against paying too much. Janesville Carriage Works.

TALK about missing bonus money. Hiawatha, Kas., with less people than Janesville subscribed $50,000 in twelve hours to start a factory employing thirty Pullman mechanics.

MRS. E. L. EATON and little son of Milwaukee, are in the city visiting Mrs. Eaton's mother, Mrs. A. C. Bates, of Milton avenue. They will return to Milwaukee on Saturday.

THURSDAY, October 11, we expect another cloak man at our store with samples representing one of the noblest lines in New York. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

THE Buck Mountain Leigh coal; all sizes. Nut, No. 4, range and egg, $6.50 per ton. Bring in your orders. Janesville Coal Co.; J. H. Gateley, manager.

E. C. FULLER, agent for the American Express Co. at Baraboo, was in the city a short time today visiting Janesville employees of that company.

HOWIE BROKE A STATE RECORD Rode a Quarter Mile in 27 1-4 Seconds on the Janesville Track Today.

From the baggage car of nearly all the trains that rolled into Janesville today shifty, spider-like bicycles were unloaded under the dotting supervision of brawny young men in sweaters. Janesville's bicycle tournament which opened this afternoon was the attraction and the men in sweaters were after prizes. Five events were scheduled as follows: One mile handicap, one quarter mile open, one-half mile handicap, mile open and five-mile handicap. About fifty entries had been made and the prizes were diamonds, watches and merchandise. In addition to the regular prizes, a $50 diamond ring was put up as an inducement to some rider to beat the state record of 2:15 which was made at the Ripon meet last August. Handicapper Miles had made out the handicaps in all events as follows:

Name	1 mile	1/2 mile	1/4 mile	5 miles
W. Howie	ser	ser	ser	ser
W. F. Sanger	15	40	225
H. W. Crocker	15	40	225
A. M. Burr	15	40	225
W. R. Kenyon	20	50	275
W. S. Schradner	20	50	275
D. Vanwart	20	50	275
D. Armstrong	25	60	325
F. K. Canare	25	60	325
C. A. Buttrick	30	70	350
F. L. Moore	35	75	400
W. S. Schradner	35	75	400
F. E. Mack	40	90	475
A. F. Bengtson	40	90	475
L. D. Chilcott	45	100	525
S. D. Tallman	50	115	575
E. A. Downing	50	115	575
A. Stolz	60	135	650
E. V. Whiton, Jr.	65	145	725
William H. Haskins	70	160	775
H. Haskins	70	160	775
F. Burgess	75	170	800

The day was anything but pleasant but when the riders lined up there was a fair attendance.

One of the first things to happen was the breaking of the quarter mile record for Wisconsin, Will Howie, of Milwaukee, covered the distance in 27 1/4 seconds. This was in the first heat of the quarter mile open race, which was won by Howie, with F. Canare, of Evansville, second, Ed. S. Church, of Chicago, third, and F. E. Mack, of Fort Atkinson, fourth. Another heat was necessary to decide.

The one mile handicap was won by Ed. S. Church, of Chicago, with D. Van Wart, of Evansville, second, W. E. Kenyon, of Chicago, third, and H. W. Crocker, of Milwaukee, fourth, the time being 2:23. A strong wind made fast time hardly probable in any of the events.

CITY FUNDS LOANED OUT AT INTEREST

MERCHANTS AND MECHANICS BANK GETS $40,000.

Agrees to Pay 3 Per Cent. On All Sums Left Longer Than Six Months and 2 Per Cent. On Sums Left For a Shorter Period—One Other Bid.

City money swelled the deposits of the Merchants & Mechanics Savings bank $40,000 today. This sum of money was banked by City Treasurer Fathers, it being a portion of the money belonging to the high school building fund.

There was only one other proposition to take the money on deposit, that being from the First National bank. This proposition was to pay 2 1/2 per cent. on all sums remaining on deposit until March 15, and 2 per cent. on all sums checked out previous to that date, interest computed from the daily balances.

The Merchants & Mechanics bank pays interest on this deposit as follows: On all sums remaining on deposit for six months, 3 per cent per annum; 2 per cent on all sums remaining on deposit for less than six months, interest only computed for full months.

Treasurer Fathers is relieved of all responsibility regarding this money. He made the deposit on recommendation of the committee on finance of the council, which consists of Aldermen Baines, Child and Heddles.

SHE WENT CRAZY ON THE STREET.

Julia Quirk Made a Sensation Last Night—Insane Folks From Dane.

Julia Quirk, of Spring Green, who has been working in this city as a domestic, for some time, wandered out on the streets last evening and became violently crazy. She was so uncontrollable that Chief Acheson had to lock her up.

The girl has been in the Dane county insane asylum and the local officers will now send her back to Dane county for care and treatment. Miles Doyle, another Dane county insane patient, will go back with her.

Doyle recently escaped from the Dane county asylum and wandered around the country until yesterday when he went to the home of William Honeysett and was taken in charge by Constable Acheson of Magnolia. He is very violent.

JAIL MADE THEM PLEAD GUILTY.

Two Months' Confinement Led Beloit Boys to Change Their Minds.

"I sentence each of you to imprisonment in the county jail for four months and fifteen days," said Judge Phelps this afternoon, addressing Neil Mahaney and Bert Braderon, two of the Beloit youths implicated in the outrage upon Miss Ferrin, of Shopiere last summer.

The boys took an appeal from the Beloit justice and were sent to jail pending trial in the municipal court. After remaining in jail for two months they concluded to plead guilty.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

His Heroic Wife.
Mr. Henpeck—I believe I've got the most heroic wife in the world.
Friend—What did she do?
Mr. Henpeck—A burglar came into the house during my absence. My wife didn't scare worth a cent. She received him politely. I saw him. Just as I entered the house he jumped through the window and escaped. He was a young fellow and good looking.
Friend (who knows her)—No wonder he was scared.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

Chance to Prove Devotion.
Wife—If you can't support me as I ought to be supported, you might at least go to the races.
Husband—What! Do you want me to gamble on horse races to encourage your extravagance?
Wife—Of course not. You needn't bet at all. But society is always willing to make allowances for a woman if they think her husband is going to the dogs.—N. Y. Weekly.

Could Not Be Worse.
A would-be poet handed two of his poems to an editor, asking him which would be most suitable for publication. The editor having glanced through one effusion, replied:
"The other one."
"But you have not read a line of it," exclaimed the astonished poet.
"Never mind, it can't be worse than the first," was the crushing reply.—Truth.

NOT A SILVER CERTIFICATE.

Policeman—This is the naygur, yer honor, as shole thim shoes from Finnegan's.
Justice—Were the shoes in his possession?
Policeman—No, sor-r.
Justice—What's the evidence, then?
Policeman—Whin I rin down the ishtrate cryin' "Shtop thafe!" he sktopped at wanst an' looked back.—Tack.

A Mean Trick.
Clara—Why in the world did you engage yourself to that Mr. Hardhead?
Dora—He took me at such a disadvantage that I had to.
"Nonsense."
"Oh, but you don't know. He proposed to me in an ice-cream saloon, and I knew perfectly well that if I didn't accept him he wouldn't ask me if I'd have another plate."—N. Y. Weekly.

Of Course.
He was handsome as youthful Apollo. Yet modest as modest could be; He stayed not out late in the night time. He never was seen on a spree. He never complained of his income. Though elegant clothing he wore— Don't wonder, this gem of perfection Was a dummy at Rosenthal's store. —Boston Transcript.

Why He Wept.
Jones—What makes you look so blue?
Smith—My only brother is going to marry Miss White.
"I don't wonder you feel bad about your brother marrying that heartless flirt."
"O, it isn't that; I want to marry her myself."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

A Poor Illustration.
"Don't know how many three times ten is?" Now, Harry," said the teacher, "if one loaf of bread costs ten cents, wouldn't three cost thirty cents?"
"May be so at your bakery, but we deal with a baker that gives three for a quarter."—Tammany Times.

Counting Didn't Help Him.
Mamma—What are you doing, Ned?
Ned—You told me that when I felt angry with you I must count ten.
Mamma—Well?
Ned—I've counted seven hundred and thirty-seven and I'm just as angry as I was before.—N. Y. Recorder.

Bobby's Dent.
Nurse—Please, ma'am, every time little Bobby can't have his own way he runs at me and pushes me and kicks me like everything.
Fond Mother—Bless his little heart! He'll be a famous football player some day.—Good News.

Sanitary Item.
Lady—Have you had much experience as a cook?
Applicant—Indeed, I have. I was the cook of Mr. and Mrs. Peterby for three years.

Second Bad Boy—How?
First Bad Boy—When the baggage expressman arrives with Mrs. Stuckupp's trunks, I'll scratch the steamer labels off.—Good News.

Japanese Politeness.
Lady—The feet of the ladies of your country are compressed, I believe.
Japanese Attache—Oh, no, madam; that is a Chinese custom. We in Japan allow our ladies' feet to grow to their full size (politely)—not that they can ever hope to rival yours, madam.—Truth.

Trouble in the Museum.
"You'd better go and look after those freaks," said the assistant in the dime museum.
"What's the matter?" inquired the manager.
"The cross-eyed giant is courting the two-headed girl, and she's getting jealous of herself."—Chicago Tribune.

Indicative.
"What makes you think Jack Youngley is going to propose to you?"
"Why, we were dancing the other night and I complimented him upon the easy way in which he held me. 'Oh, yes,' he said, 'it's always easy for me to hold my own.'"—Brooklyn Life.

THIS TELLS THE STORY.
FROM ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC

Praises Come, Unlimited, Heralding the Success of One Woman's Work.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
From all sections of this great country. No city so large, no village so small, but that some woman has sent us her words of joyful thanks for health restored.

From San Francisco Mrs. Detwiler writes, from her Laurel Ave. home, that she unwisely left her room all too soon when her baby was born.

The result was an aggravated case of displacement of the womb that wholly prostrated her.

The doctors tried medicines, apparatus, and she suffered everything.

"I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The effect was wonderful, and, thanks alone to her, I am now well."

Mrs. Kate Morris, 100 Mulberry St., New York, says:—

"For years I suffered with womb trouble. I was so sick and nervous that I could not stand or sit, the pains through my back made me crazy. I tried several doctors but found no relief. I was advised to try your Vegetable Compound. I did, and to-day I am a well woman."

From far-away Texas comes word from Mrs. Jennie Arthur of the town of Taylor: "I did not know what rest was for months. I was so dizzy and faint at times I thought I was dying, and, oh, how my back did ache! I am a living witness of the miraculous effects of Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Relief came with it at once. I sleep all night, and am now as well as ever in my life."

From the great state of Pennsylvania, Mrs. L. Travis, of Thurlow, tells a similar story of utter misery resulting from womb trouble; all the fearful results of this dread trouble was upon her when the Lydia Pinkham Vegetable Compound came to change the whole current of her life, and she ends up her letter by declaring: "I owe all to you." Thousands of other names are here. Let your faith lead you to the certain remedy for all your troubles. Your druggist has it for you.

county, at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the third Tuesday being the 20th day of Nov., 1894, at 9 o'clock a m. the following matter will be heard and considered:

NEW BODICES.

They May Still Be of Bright Colors and a Wide Variety of Trimming.

There is no diminution in the popularity of bodices differing in color and material from the skirt with which they are worn. Not only is crepe and every sort of silk used for these garments, but bright toned challies and other woolen goods. Summer gowns of veiling and crepon, the dainty color of which has been faded or injured here and there, may be taken apart and the best pieces utilized to make house waists for winter wear. Trimmings with jet, ribbons or black velvet, the effect is very good. A full, round bodice of red challie, with black figures, for instance, may be made over a fitted lining and gathered along the shoulder seam and around the neck and waist. A pointed corselet is then simulated by two bands of black velvet ribbon. A black velvet collar with choux finishes the neck, and a black velvet belt encircles the waist. The tight sleeves have velvet bands at the wrists and a double puff above the elbow, divided by velvet bands. For evening wear different bodices are particularly liked and are made in varying degrees of elaboration. Plain glace silk, so long favored, is now beginning to give way to stripes and checks, while black corselets are brightened up by collars, cuffs and belts of brilliant velvet. Geranium and blue are the shades of the moment, but blue of a warmer tone is seen and also rich tones of olive.

For breakfast wear a pretty variety of Russian blouse is shown. Made of striped flannel, it is smooth over the shoulders, but gathered at the front and back of the neck, which is rounded and collarless. The blouse opens at one side of the front, under a flat band of trimming. A similar band borders the neck and sleeves and forms the belt.

A blouse of glace silk is shown in the sketch. The upper part is tucked to form a yoke, and the fullness is confined by a ribbon belt. The sleeve puffs are tucked at the shoulders and midway of the arm. The lower part of the sleeves is plain.

FASHIONABLE TRIMMINGS.

Ribbon, Lace and the Perennial Popularity of Jet.

Ribbon decorations are as fashionable this fall as they were during the summer. Both satin and moire ribbon are used in choux, knots, bands and bretelles. Ribbon belts are worn, tied at the side or behind with long floating ends. Guipure and other lace, especially chantilly, are favored and are used in every possible way. The wide lace collars worn during the summer are seen in greater variety than ever, while shaped pieces for cuffs, epaulets, figaros and basques may be obtained in all the usual tints. This greatly simplifies trimming of gowns and admits of their being altered with little trouble.

LACE TRIMMED GOWN.

Jet seems to enjoy a perennial popularity. It never goes out of fashion either for the decoration of gowns or millinery. The sparing use of a fine quality of jet possesses more effective than lavish quantities of the cheaper sort. Gold and steel trimmings appear in profusion among the autumn importations, and fashion still insists upon frosted plumes in spite of their extreme fragility. The plain ostrich plume is likewise to be much employed this winter for the decoration of gowns as well as of hats. It is always beautiful and becoming, and provided that it is not allowed to get damp it remains in good condition for a long time.

Buckles will remain in style as long as belts are fashionable. They are not as large as they were a few years ago, but are shown in greater variety and are used for a larger number of purposes. In buying a jet buckle it is more economical to take the best quality, as the cheap ones come to pieces easily and will be unlikely to last out half the season, while the good ones can be used over and over, besides looking much better.

An illustration is given of a silk and wool gown trimmed with guipure. The plain skirt has a full tablier of soft silk and is trimmed around the foot with guipure vandykes. The round, belted bodice has a basque, yoke and epaulets of guipure, the lower part of the sleeve puffs being similarly trimmed.

Peach Dumping.

Into a quart of sifted flour rub a tablespoonful of lard, add 2 teaspoonfuls of salt and milk enough to make a soft dough; roll out the dough and cut into rounds, and in the middle of each of these place a peach, pared, but not stoned. Put the dumplings on a plate, steam them for a little less than three-quarters of an hour and serve hot with cream sauce.
